

AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY APRIL 20, 2010

AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY MARCH 9, 2010

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2009–10 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 1927

Introduced by Assembly Member Knight

February 17, 2010

An act to amend Section 1368 of, and to add Section 1360.2 to, the Civil Code, relating to common interest developments.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1927, as amended, Knight. Real property: common interest developments.

The Davis-Stirling Common Interest Development Act provides for the creation and regulation of common interest developments. Under existing law, a common interest development is managed by an association pursuant to the provisions of the governing documents of the development.

This bill would provide that a governing document that is amended, adopted, or recorded on or after January 1, 2011, shall not prohibit the rental or lease of a separate interest in a common interest development, unless the provision imposing the prohibition is approved by $\frac{2}{3}$ of the owners of separate interests with voting power, as provided.

Existing law requires that an owner of a separate interest in a common interest development provide certain items to a prospective purchaser prior to transfer of title.

This bill would also require the owner of a separate interest, when a governing document prohibits the rental or leasing of all or any of the separate interests, to provide a statement describing the prohibition and its applicability.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the rights 2 of common interest development owners to rent or lease their 3 properties, as the rights existed at the time they acquired them, 4 should be protected by the State of California. The Legislature
5 further finds and declares that a common interest development 6 creates a unique home ownership model that is unlike the status
7 of a single family home in a traditional neighborhood. Property 8 owners and residents who purchase units within, and live in, a 9 common interest development governed by a homeowner's 10 association have agreed to live under rules and guidelines created 11 by a democratic process. It is best, therefore, as provided herein, 12 that the owners of units within a common interest development 13 determine, through the exercise of a democratic decisionmaking 14 process, what is best for their communities.

15 SEC. 2. Section 1360.2 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

16 1360.2. (a) A governing document that is amended, adopted, 17 or recorded on or after January 1, 2011, shall not prohibit the rental 18 or lease of a separate interest in a common interest development, 19 except as provided in this section.

20 (b) ~~Notwithstanding any provision of the governing documents~~
21 ~~to the contrary, if~~ If a common interest development adopts a 22 governing document or an amendment to a governing document 23 that prohibits the rental or lease of a separate interest in a common 24 interest development, that provision shall be approved by a vote 25 of the owners of separate interests with voting power in the 26 common interest development.

27 (c) ~~The~~ Notwithstanding any provision of the governing 28 documents to the contrary, the vote required by subdivision (b) 29 shall be by means of a written ballot conducted pursuant to the 30 requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 1363.03 and, unless the 31 association's governing documents in effect as of February 17, 32 2010, require a different percentage, shall be approved by not less

1 than two-thirds of the voting power of the owners of separate 2 interests in the common interest development.

3 SEC. 3. Section 1368 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4 1368. (a) The owner of a separate interest, other than an owner 5 subject to the requirements of Section 11018.6 of the Business and 6 Professions Code, shall, as soon as practicable before transfer of 7 title to the separate interest or execution of a real property sales 8 contract therefor, as defined in Section 2985, provide the following 9 to the prospective purchaser:

10 (1) A copy of the governing documents of the common interest 11 development, including any operating rules, and including a copy 12 of the association's articles of incorporation, or, if not incorporated, 13 a statement in writing from an authorized representative of the 14 association that the association is not incorporated.

15 (2) If there is a restriction in the governing documents limiting 16 the occupancy, residency, or use of a separate interest on the basis 17 of age in a manner different from that provided in Section 51.3, a 18 statement that the restriction is only enforceable to the extent 19 permitted by Section 51.3 and a statement specifying the applicable 20 provisions of Section 51.3.

21 (3) A copy of the most recent documents distributed pursuant 22 to Section 1365.

23 (4) A true statement in writing obtained from an authorized 24 representative of the association as to the amount of the 25 association's current regular and special assessments and fees, any 26 assessments levied upon the owner's interest in the common 27 interest development that are unpaid on the date of the statement, 28 and any monetary fines or penalties levied upon the owner's 29 interest and unpaid on the date of the statement. The statement 30 obtained from an authorized representative shall also include true 31 information on late charges, interest, and costs of collection which, 32 as of the date of the statement, are or may be made a lien upon the 33 owner's interest in a common interest development pursuant to 34 Section 1367 or 1367.1.

35 (5) A copy or a summary of any notice previously sent to the 36 owner pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1363 that sets forth 37 any alleged violation of the governing documents that remains 38 unresolved at the time of the request. The notice shall not be 39 deemed a waiver of the association's right to enforce the governing 40 documents against the owner or the prospective purchaser of the

1 separate interest with respect to any violation. This paragraph shall 2 not be construed to require an association to inspect an owner's 3 separate interest.

4 (6) A copy of the preliminary list of defects provided to each 5 member of the association pursuant to Section 1375, unless the 6 association and the builder subsequently enter into a settlement 7 agreement or otherwise resolve the matter and the association
8 complies with Section 1375.1. Disclosure of the preliminary list 9 of defects pursuant to this paragraph does not waive any privilege 10 attached to the document. The preliminary list of defects shall also 11 include a statement that a final determination as to whether the list 12 of defects is accurate and complete has not been made.

13 (7) A copy of the latest information provided for in Section 14 1375.1.

15 (8) Any change in the association's current regular and special 16 assessments and fees which have been approved by the 17 association's board of directors, but have not become due and 18 payable as of the date disclosure is provided pursuant to this 19 subdivision.

20 (9) If there is a provision in the governing documents that 21 prohibits the rental or leasing of all or any of the separate interests 22 in the common interest development to a renter, lessee, or tenant, 23 a statement describing the prohibition and its applicability.

24 (b) Upon written request, an association shall, within 10 days 25 of the mailing or delivery of the request, provide the owner of a 26 separate interest with a copy of the requested items specified in 27 paragraphs (1) to (8), inclusive, of subdivision (a). The items 28 required to be made available pursuant to this section may be 29 maintained in electronic form and requesting parties shall have 30 the option of receiving them by electronic transmission or machine 31 readable storage media if the association maintains these items in 32 electronic form. The association may charge a reasonable fee for 33 this service based upon the association's actual cost to procure, 34 prepare, and reproduce the requested items.

35 (c) (1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (2), neither an 36 association nor a community service organization or similar entity 37 may impose or collect any assessment, penalty, or fee in connection 38 with a transfer of title or any other interest except for the following:

39 (A) An amount not to exceed the association's actual costs to 40 change its records.

1 (B) An amount authorized by subdivision (b).

2 (2) The amendments made to this subdivision by the act adding 3 this paragraph do not apply to a community service organization
4 or similar entity that is described in subparagraph (A) or (B):

5 (A) The community service organization or similar entity 6 satisfies both of the following requirements:

7 (i) The community service organization or similar entity was 8 established prior to February 20, 2003.

9 (ii) The community service organization or similar entity exists 10 and operates, in whole or in part, to fund or perform environmental 11 mitigation or to restore or maintain wetlands or native habitat, as 12 required by the state or local government as an express written 13 condition of development.

14 (B) The community service organization or similar entity 15 satisfies all of the following requirements:

16 (i) The community service organization or similar entity is not 17 an organization or entity described in subparagraph (A).

18 (ii) The community service organization or similar entity was 19 established and received a transfer fee prior to January 1, 2004.

20 (iii) On and after January 1, 2006, the community service 21 organization or similar entity offers a purchaser the following 22 payment options for the fee or charge it collects at time of transfer:

23 (I) Paying the fee or charge at the time of transfer.

24 (II) Paying the fee or charge pursuant to an installment payment 25 plan for a period of not less than seven years. If the purchaser 26 elects to pay the fee or charge in installment payments, the 27 community service organization or similar entity may also collect 28 additional amounts that do not exceed the actual costs for billing 29 and financing on the amount owed. If the purchaser sells the 30 separate interest before the end of the installment payment plan 31 period, he or she shall pay the remaining balance prior to transfer.

32 (3) For the purposes of this subdivision, a “community service 33 organization or similar entity” means a nonprofit entity, other than 34 an association, that is organized to provide services to residents 35 of the common interest development or to the public in addition 36 to the residents, to the extent community common areas or facilities 37 are available to the public. A “community service organization or 38 similar entity” does not include an entity that has been organized 39 solely to raise moneys and contribute to other nonprofit 40 organizations that are qualified as tax exempt under Section

1 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and that provide housing 2 or housing assistance.

3 (d) Any person or entity who willfully violates this section is 4 liable to the purchaser of a separate interest that is subject to this 5 section for actual damages occasioned thereby and, in addition, 6 shall pay a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed five hundred 7 dollars ($500). In an action to enforce this liability, the prevailing 8 party shall be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees.

9 (e) Nothing in this section affects the validity of title to real 10 property transferred in violation of this section.

11 (f) In addition to the requirements of this section, an owner 12 transferring title to a separate interest shall comply with applicable 13 requirements of Sections 1133 and 1134.

14 (g) For the purposes of this section, a person who acts as a 15 community association manager is an agent, as defined in Section 16 2297, of the association.
